

Should you hire a virtual assistant?

What to know before deciding

Remote VAs can support fully remote, hybrid, or in-person teams effectively

Clear communication and expectations build trust

Great onboarding sets the foundation—training and support matter every time

Proactiveness is the #1 trait to look for in a virtual executive assistant

Remote VAs help reduce interruptions and boost focus

Remote work can be as productive as in-person work, especially for virtual assistants

Viva's virtual executive assistants are trained, vetted, and ready to deliver value in under 1 week

Learn more about hiring a high-performing virtual executive assistant at execviva.com/blog